

Susan Kyles
Student Ambassador Program Manager

Susan Kyles, Student Ambassador Program Manager, has been a member of the Society for Financial Education and Professional Development Team for over six years. As the lead consultant and architect of the program, Susan is responsible for the developing strategies to ensure the Student Ambassadors are trained, challenged, and provided all the tools necessary for their success. Susan's experience in developing standardized metrics to measure and evaluate has been the cornerstone of the SFE&PD Student Ambassador's successful program.

Susan brings a wealth of experience to SFE&PD. She began her professional experience as a financial analyst, financial manager and director of finance and procurement for major corporations. Her commitment to financial literacy education began shortly after college. She started teaching financial literacy to colleagues, in churches and in the community using financial knowledge she gained in college to help others become financially secure. Susan extended her services to assisting small business owners with establishing financial systems to stabilize and grow their businesses. This has turned into a passion and a lifelong commitment to helping small businesses to succeed and prosper. Susan is also an entrepreneur providing consulting services to C-Suite Executives.

A graduate of Cornell University, Susan has a Bachelor of Science in Applied Economics and Business Management with a concentration in Finance.
