

Yulianna Charris, Social Media Coordinator

Yulianna Charris is SFE&PD's Social Media Coordinator. She served as a Student Ambassador for the Society for Financial Education and Professional Development, Inc. from 2018-2020. In this capacity, she taught peer-to-peer financial literacy classes at Florida Memorial University (FMU). She graduated summa cum laude from FMU with a 4.0 GPA in May 2020 with a Bachelor of Science in finance. Her previous work experience showcases her deep involvement with her college community, working as a student tutor and as a library student assistant. To strengthen her skill set, Yulianna has attended leadership and training conferences at the Summer Institute for Emerging Managers and Leaders and the Bloomberg Diversity Summit. Yulianna also presented a student peer-to-peer workshop at the SFE&PD Annual Financial Literacy Leadership Conference in Fall 2019, an event attended by over 250 financial educators nationwide. She also holds a Certificate of Bloomberg Market Concepts from Bloomberg Professional Services, centered on currencies, economic indicators, equities, and fixed income. Yulianna recently completed the Money Management Essentials course by the Association for Financial Counseling & Planning Education (AFCPE), focusing on student loans, debt reduction, credit cards, loans, housing, risk management, financial counseling, taxes, banking, credit, investment basics, and retirement. Originally from Caracas, Venezuela, Yulianna is fluent in both English and Spanish.
